LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS.

Judge W. C. East has been quite indisposed this week.

Mr. Hudkins, of Martin, is here this week loading staves.

Mrs. W. A. Yarbrough has gone to Jackson to visit relatives and friends.

An unusually large acreage of peanuts is being planted in this county.

Mrs. Mary Yarbrough returned home Saturday from a visit to relatives at Waverly.

W. A. Yarbrough spent several days last week at Huntsville, Ala., with his brother, J. S. Yarbrough.

Mrs. Dora McMackin and E. L. Hudson and Miss Gillie Stigall and E. E. McDaniel spent Sunday with friends at Coxburgh.

Mrs. John Heggie and daughter, Mrs. Mary French, of Bertrand, Mo., are here on an extended visit to relatives and friends.

Rev. J. W. Turner preached two good sermons at the Presbyterian Church Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Turner.

Rev. N. R. Waters will preach the funeral of David Pafford at Pilot Knob Sunday, and will hold services here Sunday evening.

Commencement at Benton Seminary will include next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights, and a splendid program is in preparation.

Found—A package containing two pair of hose, near town, Tuesday. Owner can recover them by identifying the package and paying for this notice.

Sergeant Frank Beasley, of Company K, Fourth Tennessee Regiment, recently mustered out of service, was in the city Monday. He returned that evening to his home in Waverly.

O. A. Utley informs us that May 25 is set apart for cleaning off the cemetery grounds at the Rushing's Creek church. He is also informed that Rev. J. N. Hall will preach the same day at that place at 12 o'clock.

There is a sanitary law of the corporation of Camden requiring that all privies (public and private) stables, cow and hog pens and all foul places be cleaned and limed and kept in a healthful condition. And it is further decreed that all citizens cleanse said places according to law within the next 30 days, by order of the board of health.

T. J. Snyder, advance agent of Emmett Snyder's show, collided with a breast yoke in the hands of Walter Kirk Monday evening. He was in a drunken stupor and was seated in front of Saunders' livery stable when Walter Kirk, who was also drinking, came by and gave him a dangerous blow on the head with the breast yoke. At first it was thought that Snyder had been killed, but though severely hurt he was able to get away Wednesday night. So far Kirk has succeeded in eluding the officers.

Russell Scruggs, son of Rev. B. C. Scruggs, of Selmer, who enlisted in the Fourth Tennessee Regiment, was here Wednesday, having received an honorable discharge. The Fourth Tennessee embarked at Savannah, Ga., for Cuba last December, and were in camp at Sancti Spiritus, in Santa Clara Province, until April when the regiment returned to the United States and was mustered out of service a few weeks ago. Corporal Scruggs was en route to Holladay to visit his brother, John R. Scruggs.

The teachers' association meets at Liberty to-morrow.

Edgar Totty is engaged in buying poultry for a Chicago house.

See estray notices in another column of this issue of THE CHRONICLE.

V. A. Rushing and family, of Box, visited his parents here this week.

W. W. Atchison and wife, of Big Sandy, spent Sunday here with relatives.

Mr. Dwyer was joined here last Sunday by his wife and child from Tullahoma.

Master Olian Page, of McKenzie, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. James Townsend.

Mrs. James Townsend and son, Archie, visited relatives at McKenzie last week.

S. L. Peeler, trustee, sold the J. R. Hatley place Saturday by decree of the chancery court. Consideration, $2,500.

Preparations are being made for children's day at the Methodist Church. The date will be made known later.

The strawberry crop is a little late this year, but the berries are fine and the crop is a large one. They are selling here at 75 cents and $1 per crate.

During the rain storm last Friday Howard Akers was killed by lightning near Danville, and a Mr. Collier was badly shocked but recovered.

The show was delayed by high winds in crossing Tennessee River Wednesday and did not get here in time for the afternoon performance. The show at night was well attended.

Will Lewis, colored, was fined last week for violating the town ordinances. L. M. Presson paid a fine for public drunkenness, and two peddlers (Jews) paid into the town treasury about $30 in the way of fines, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Hawley will be at home in their dwelling on Haley avenue after May 25. The house has been repaired and newly furnished, and extensive improvements are being made on the place by Mr. Hawley.

Mrs. W. P. Morris was knocked down by a buggy and narrowly escaped a serious accident Sunday afternoon. One wheel passed over her wrist, but no bones were broken. She sustained other injuries, but nothing serious, and she is able to be out as usual.

C. T. Brecheen resigned as assistant postmaster here last Thursday to accept a position as clerk in the mailing division of the post-office at Memphis. He left for Memphis Thursday night, and will be joined there by his family later on. We wish him all success.

The stockholders of the Southern Telephone Company held an interesting meeting here Tuesday. President William Caraway, of Big Sandy, presided, and the reports received shows that the company is in a very prosperous condition. New lines have been completed, some are building, and others will be built at once.

The rain storm last Friday was very destructive in some parts of the county. House were unroofed, timber was blown down, and north-east of here gardens were riddled by hail so large that they made indentures on houses struck by them. Small streams became almost rivers in a few hours, and a great deal of corn was washed away.

The teachers' normal by Prof. W. D. Cooper will begin here June 5.

Mrs. Frank Burton, of Nashville, visited relatives and friends here the first of the week.

Rev. W. C. Greer, a Baptist minister, of Paris, will preach at this place next Sunday week.

T. C. Hickman, of McMoresville, visited his sister, Mrs. R. L. Bridges, the first of the week.

FROM SMITH'S COLLEGE.

Special correspondence.] We are having dry weather-at present.

W. R. Hicks was at Hollow Rock yesterday.

Some tobacco plants have been put out in this locality.

The infant child of Will Beasley died Saturday. The interment was Old Prospect Cemetery.

Ned Rushing, colored, died very suddenly last week. He has lived for a long while on the farm of John C. Rushing.

We want to congratulate Uncle James Greer, who resides 1/4 mile this side of Big Sandy, for having the finest garden and crop of potatoes that we have seen this season.

Saturday and Sunday was an interesting time at this place. Rev. Mr. Bushart preached Saturday at 11 a. m. and Sunday at 7 p. m. Rev. Mr. Moore preached Saturday at 7 p. m. and Sunday at 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. There was Sunday school at 11 a. m. And this feast of services ended with the washing of the feet of the saints, and the administering of the sacrament, conducted in part by Rev. Chronicle Brandon, of Camden.

SMITH'S COLLEGE, May 16.

FROM LIBERTY.

Regular correspondence.] Farming is very near at a standstill at present.

R. W. Lindsey, of Faxon, visited here Sunday.

Mrs. Ollie Davidson has returned from a visit at Gleason.

Carlos Finley will probably remain in this community during the summer.

Measles reported in that locality will prevent a number from going to Pilot Knob Sunday.

The third quarterly meeting will be held at Liberty, and will embrace the third Sunday in June.

H. L. Markham failed to meet his appointment here Sunday, being called to Prospect to hold funeral services.

An unusually heavy rain storm last Friday did considerable damage to lands in cultivation. This is the heaviest rainfall we have had since May, 1898. This seems to be a lucky place for heavy rains.

LIBERTY, May 1899.

FROM GREENBRIER.

Special correspondence.] Several from here spent Sunday at Ramble Creek.

This section was swept by a rain storm last Friday.

Lawrence Broughton, of Garfield, was here last week.

Warm weather and sunlight is making the farmer hustle early and late.

Very few people here found time to attend criminal court at Camden yesterday.

Miss Myrtle Pierce, of Big Sandy, and Miss Jennie Alsop, of near Wheatley, are guests of Misses Ada and Delia Pierce.

Miss Dollie French, whose shoulder was dislocated in a runaway accident while driving the first Sunday in this month, is improving.

GREENBRIER, May 16.
